

FUNDING BY ISSUE CHEAT SHEET

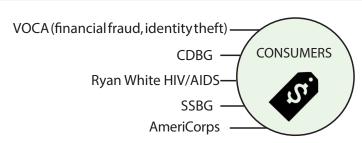

State-Administered Federal Funds that can Support Legal Aid

This cheat sheet provides a birds-eye view of populations served and issues commonly addressed by legal aid providers and the non-exhaustive list of state-administered federal funds that can support legal aid solutions. If you have questions about whether a particular funding stream might be a match for issues not shown here, contact resourcedesk@nlada.org.

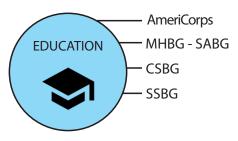

Formore detailed information about each of these state-administered federal funds, see The Justice in Government Project's (JGP) Grants Matrix available at: https://www.american.edu/spa/jpo/toolkit/module-2.cfm

To read about the evidence base connecting legal aid to each of these issue areas, see JGP's research briefs available at: https://www.american.edu/spa/jpo/toolkit/module-1.cfm

Acronyms:

CDBG - Community Development Block Grant

CSBG - Community Services Block Grant

FVPSA - Family Violence and Prevention Services Grants

SOR - State Opioid Response grants

MGBH - SABG - the Community Mental Health Services BlockGrant(MHBG) and the Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment (SABG) Block Grant SSBG - Social Services Block Grant

STOP - (Services, Training, Officers, and Prosecuters) Violence Against Women Formula Grant

TANF - Temporary Assistance for Needy Families

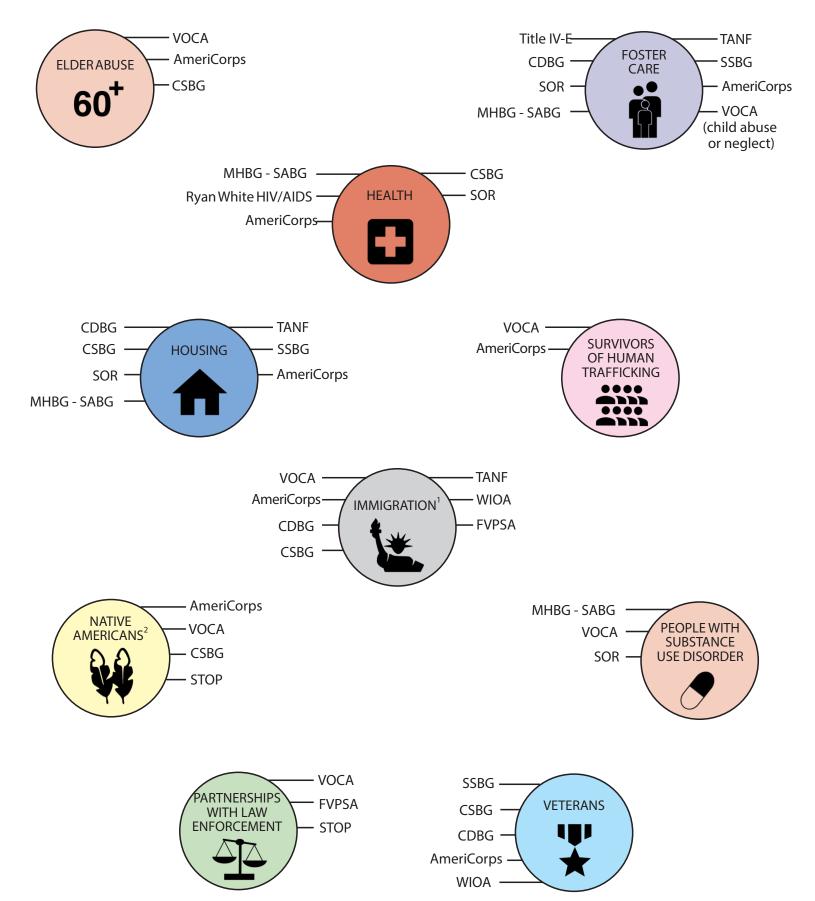

Title IV-D - Title IV-D, Child Support and Establishment of Paternity

Title IV-E - Title IV-E, Federal Payments for Foster Care and Adoption Assistance

VOCA - Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) Victim Assistance Formula Grants

WIOA - Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) State Formula Funding

Last updated January 2020

Endnotes

1. Allofthese funds have limits based on immigrant status or issue. For example: WIOA funds can be used for migrant and season alworkers (Source: https://www.govinfo.gov/content/pkg/FR-2016-08-19/pdf/2016-15975.pdf); and VOCA can only support immigrants with civil legal issues that are directly related to their victimization.

2. All Grants Matrix funding sources can be used for Native Americans — some have "set aside" fundsforNativeAmericans. For example: 1 percent of AmeriCorps funds are set aside for eligible federally recognized Indian tribes and tribal organizations (Source: https://www.nationalservice.gov/programs/americorps-matricorps-programs/americorps-state-national/tribal); and Congress hasa 3 percent set-aside of Crime Victims Fund receipts to improve services for victims of crime intribal communities (Source: https://www.ovc.gov/news/tribal-set-aside.html)